

Athletics Take Double-Header, Beating Boehling and Johnson

Bob Murphy to Get Trial with Chicago

Local Boy, Captain of Agriculture Nine, to Be Given Chance with White Sox by Manager Callahan When Club Comes to City.

Bob Murphy, captain and manager of the Agricultural Club in the Departmental League last season, will be given a trial by Manager Callahan of the Chicago White Sox, when that club arrives here September 12.

Murphy has had considerable minor league experience, and will not go out to the Sox as a real bushy. A good hitter, Murphy knows the game of baseball, and may put up a hard battle for a job with the big league club. Bob Whitney was signed by Callahan on the recommendation of Murphy, and while the big fellow has been no good to the Sox this year, he should be able to try his luck next spring. Murphy kept Whitney out of the team this season, but the local boy hopes to be in good shape next spring, and will then make them all hustle.

Murphy will report to Callahan at the park September 12, and will more than likely be worked in the infield for a time, as that Callahan can look him over. If Murphy looks good he will be signed at once.

YANKEES VICTIMS IN HOLIDAY GAMES

Red Sox Shut Out New York Club in First Contest and Collins Gets 4 to 3 Verdict Over Ford in Last.

Boston, Sept. 1.—The Red Sox defeated the Yankees twice today, shutting them out in the first, 4 to 0, and winning the evening contest in eleven innings, 4 to 2. Moseley pitched good ball in the opener. The second game, in which Ford tossed Collins, was much more of a battle. The Yankees came from behind and tied the score in the fifth, only to lose out in the eleventh on a single by Hooper.

MORNING GAME.
New York AB: Moseley, 1; Collins, 2; Hooper, 3; Moseley, 4; Collins, 5; Hooper, 6; Moseley, 7; Collins, 8; Hooper, 9; Moseley, 10; Collins, 11; Hooper, 12. Total: 11 runs, 10 hits, 1 error.

CHICAGO CAPTURES MORNING CONTEST
Cubs Take First Game of Double Bill from Cardinals and Nightcap Is Declared a Tie.

St. Louis, Sept. 1.—The Cubs won the first game of a double-header from the Cardinals this afternoon, 2 to 1, but the final game was called the end of the eighth inning with the score 2 to 1. Schulte's double, after Cheney and Leach had strangled, in the third round of the contest, engaged the Cardinals, which won the game. The Cardinals scored their only run in the first on a pass and two safeties. In that contest Cheney outpitched Salter, allowing two less hits.

MORNING GAME.
Chicago AB: Salter, 1; Cheney, 2; Leach, 3; Salter, 4; Cheney, 5; Leach, 6; Salter, 7; Cheney, 8; Leach, 9; Salter, 10; Cheney, 11; Leach, 12. Total: 11 runs, 10 hits, 1 error.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE.
Moran and Palmer Await Grog for Wednesday's Fight.

New York, Sept. 1.—All arrangements have been made for the ten-round bout to be staged here Wednesday night between Al Palmer, who comes from Iowa, and Frank Moran, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, who poses in the pugilistic spotlight as "white hopes."

Both men are in prime condition and each is confident of victory. The winners most likely will get a chance to swap wallop with Gusomb Smith, who is hailed as the best man in the white heavy-weight division.

And yet, it is doubtful if even Larry Chappell could have saved Milwaukee from three four beatings at the hands of the Milers.

Johnson and Boehling Fail to Stop Macks

South-paw Joe and Walter Are Beaten by Athletics in Labor Day Bill—Scores Are 4 to 1 and 6 to 5.

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.—It was like a guy walking up to you with a hundred dollar bill, saying, "Take it," and then yanking it back and laughing at you, to lose the game, 6 to 5, to the Philadelphia Athletics here this afternoon.

Boehling's wildness, and airtight pitching on the part of Chief Bender, lost the morning combat to the White Elephants, 4 to 1. The afternoon battle, and a battle it was, went to the Athletics in the tenth inning and was marked by one of the most spectacular finishes ever witnessed on a ball field.

Fighting an uphill fight from the start, the Nationals this afternoon knocked two young pitchers out of the box, and rumbled up the offerings of the third Mack moundsman for the run which looked as big as a mountain. Johnson, after being touched up freely in the early part of the game, settled down and allowed but one hit until the tenth. The Kansas blizzard had retired Schang and Daley, and Griff was busy packing away the bats, when the storm broke.

Murphy singled; Oldring unleashed a terrific drive to left center for a double, and Collins followed with a clean single. Two runs shot over the plate and the game was over.

Johnson Not Right.
In justice to Johnson, it must be said that the big fellow was far from right. While he was warming up with Al Smith, he remarked to his battery partner: "Eddie, I haven't got a thing to do; you fellows will have to go out and make a lot of runs for me."

Johnson was very much the whole front page during the entire game, while Al Smith and Miller were also close to the footlights of the drama, or, to be more correct, the tragedy.

Walter tried the score himself with a home-run smash in the third, and also paved the way for the second tie-up in the ninth. In addition, he carefully played with Barry's punt in the second inning, which was directly responsible for the Athletics' two tallies, and in hitting Murphy in the third further aided the Mackmen to their hunt for runs.

The Climbers hit Brown, Houck, and Bush harder than did the Athletics hit Johnson, but, as was the case this morning, the Elephants provided the better support.

25,000 at Game.
The crowd this afternoon was 25,000 paid admissions. The park was filled to its capacity ten minutes before the game started, and then the gates were closed. It is estimated that nearly 5,000 fans were turned away.

The less said about the morning game the better. Miller misplayed a fly ball in the first inning that put the Athletics in the lead, and they were never headed, as they after a poor start came back and won the championship.

The morning crowd, according to official count, numbered 15,000, making the total paid admissions for the day 40,000, and paving the way for the second tie-up in the ninth. In addition, he carefully played with Barry's punt in the second inning, which was directly responsible for the Athletics' two tallies, and in hitting Murphy in the third further aided the Mackmen to their hunt for runs.

Morning Game
When Clyde Miller misplayed Stuffy McInnes' line drive in the first inning, the Nationals' chances for victory went glimmering.

Oldring was on third base at the time, two were gone, and the ball McInnes hit should have retired the side. Instead of which two runs trickled over the plate.

Chief Bender got a 4 to 1 verdict over Joe Boehling, but he was a crowd of 15,000 enthusiastic fans.

It would hardly be fair to say that Southpaw Joe outpitched the veteran Redman, yet Boehling twirled good enough to beat almost any team had he been properly supported.

Bender Gets Strong.
Bender was hit hard in only the first inning, when an error, followed by three singles in a row, netted the Climbers only one measly tally. After the White Elephants had scored three runs in the first, the Athletics were in a position to win the game.

Boehling was battered for half a dozen swats in seven innings, but of this number two were infield grounders that Barry and Schang beat out.

Barry, Walsh, and E. Murphy played sensational ball added for the home team. The first named robbed Foster, and Henry of some hits by reaching over to second and scooping up around bases with one hand.

According to the Washington players, Umpire Ferguson was away off color before the bat and virtually blind during the first inning.

Boehling walked Murphy and Oldring for a starter, and these men, so the Athletics' story should have been called out on strikes. Collins followed with a sacrifice, and when Morgan threw out Baker, K. Murphy scored. McInnes lined to Miller, who misplayed the ball, and the Athletics were in a position to win the game.

On the next ball pitched Gandil shot a clean single past Barry, and Miller knocked the Nationals' only tally of the morning, as Morgan's clout to right, advancing Gandil to third, was wasted when Shanks fled to E. Murphy for the third out.

Bender twirled superb ball throughout the remainder of the game, allowing but one scratch hit, a single to center by Gandil in the sixth inning.

The Score.
WASHINGTON, AB: R. H. P. O. A. E. Bender, 1; Collins, 2; Houck, 3; Bender, 4; Collins, 5; Houck, 6; Bender, 7; Collins, 8; Houck, 9; Bender, 10; Collins, 11; Houck, 12. Total: 11 runs, 10 hits, 1 error.

CRACK LITTLE WESTERN HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETE TO MATRICULATE AT BROOKLAND INSTITUTE—Will Be Candidate for Football Team.

Buck Howard, the great little athlete of Western High School, will enter Catholic University this fall. The sturdy little ball tosser and platoon chaser has made up his mind to try his luck at the Brookland Institute, and will be a candidate for the football team this fall.

Several local boys are slated for Catholic University including Kickenford, the Tech backfield star, Howard gives promise of developing into a star of the first water, both on the gridiron and diamond. Nothing but a kid, Buck, is a clever feller, and a fair striker. On the gridiron, Buck should prove to be a good man, although rather light for a college aggregation. Fast, and a heady player, Buck is a sure tackler, and will more than likely be used at an end position at the Brookland Institute.
